Catalogue Navigation

There are various parts that comprise the Catalogue home page.

These are:

- Account log in
- Search box
- New books/items carousel
- Quote of the day
- Resources menu
- Information elements
- Action elements.

Account log in

If you have signed up as a Library member, click on “Log in to your account”.

This will allow you to complete actions such as creating a list, tracking your loans and other personalisation functions.

When you login you will see a welcome message and be able to access your account.

You can still search the catalogue if you haven’t signed up as a member.

Search box

There is a basic search box on the catalogue home page which defaults to searching across a range of record fields. We recommend you leave the default search to “Library catalogue” when you use the basic search box (see Figure 1).

You can the default search to get more targeted results including: title, author, ISBN. Select these by clicking on the down arrow at the search box.

See “Search Tips” below for information on searching.

Figure 1

Other search options include:

- Advanced search
- Tag cloud AND
- Libraries.

See “Search Tips” below for information on using these functions for searching.

New books/items carousel

The new books/items carousel is a revolving display of new items added to the catalogue. A book cover will be visible (if available) with the title of the item(see Figure 2).

This carousel is refreshed daily.

You can access a title directly by clicking on the title below the cover image (e.g., “Gender : the key concepts /”). When you click on the title, you will be taken to the full catalogue record window of this item.

Figure 2

See “Catalogue Results” below for further information about catalogue records.

Quote of the day

The quote of the day comes from a collection of curated quotes from Fr. Gerard Tucker and other prominent BSL leaders and staff. Quotes are curated by Library staff including volunteers (see Figure 3).

The quote is refreshed daily.

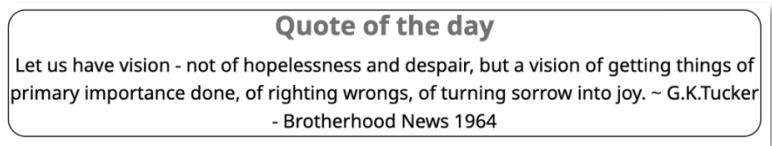

Figure 3

Resources menu

The “Resources” menu is located on the left-hand side of the catalogue home page.

This menu includes links to the current year’s catalogued items (“2023 Items”) which is updated weekly); last year’s catalogued items (“2022 Items”), search hints, BSL Archives and the BSL Timeline (see Figure 4).

Click through these headings to explore the contents.

See “Collections” below for more information about the Archives and Timeline.

Figure 7

Contact and hours of operation

Contact details and the hours of Library operation are available.

Menu Breadcrumb

The menu breadcrumb lets you know where you are in the catalogue.

At Figure 8, the current page is “Contents of 2023 Items”. You can navigate your way back or to any pages available on the breadcrumb trail: Public lists, Lists, your account or the Home page.

Action elements

There are some elements that you can “action” or interact with in the catalogue.

Cart

When you do a catalogue search you can add items you select to a cart. This is a temporary place for results. Once you log out or close your browser, you lose the items in your cart. You can see how many items in your cart while you navigate within the catalogue (see Figure 9).

See “Working with records” below for more information.

Lists

A “List” is a permanent location for saving results. You can create and manage your lists via the “Lists” icon at the top of the page: Lists > Your Lists. Lists can be shared, edited and deleted (see Figure 10).

The Library manages Public lists.

See “Working with results” below for more information about working with Lists.

Collections

Following is information about different collection types.

These are:

- The Lending collection
- BSL Archives
- BSL Timeline.

Lending collection

The Lending collection refers generally to print books and reports that are available for loan on the open shelves. The Lending collection also refers to digital items which are downloadable from the library catalogue. These comprise about 50% of items in the catalogue.

Physical print items are arranged in Dewey order and can be browsed at any time. Lending can be completed via the self-check machine located in the Library.

Labelling on the shelves assists with locating physical print items.

Items in the lending collection can also be browsable via the library catalogue.

See "Catalogue navigation" above for more details.

BSL Archives

The Archives collection contains an extensive set of primary sources including papers, photographs and audio-visual materials spanning from the early 20th Century to today. These records offer insight into the history of the Brotherhood of St Laurence and the many varied social welfare and poverty programs and activities that the Brotherhood has been engaged in.

The archives are organised chronologically and discoverable in the Library catalogue.

The archive has been arranged into 3 categories (Series):

- Series 1: Tapes, Reels, CDs, and DVDs, 1940s-2011
- Series 2: Papers, 1875-2019 :
  - This Series contains a large set of published and unpublished materials including books, reports, correspondence, and other assorted papers.
- Series 3: Photographs, 1905-2017:
  - This Series contains a large set of historic and contemporary photographs, negatives, and slides, including black & white photographs of BSL activities and staff, photo albums (eg. Father Tucker's from WWI), and donated collections of photographs and photo albums.

David Scott Collection.

David Scott was a director of the Brotherhood, a socially progressive community icon, and a key figure in the history of community organisations and social advocacy in Australia. The David Scott collection contains records spanning from 1930 to 2011. Assembled by Scott when preparing his biography, it offers crucial insights into Scott's early life and his role in various Australian and international organisations, government agencies and political movements.

This collection is arranged into 5 categories (Series):

- Series 1: The Early Years

- Series 2: Social Work & Community Development
- Series 3: East Timor
- Series 4: Post-Brotherhood Life, Professional Work and Activism
- Series 5: Scott's Biography & General Topics.

BSL Timeline

The Timeline is an online portal into the history of the Brotherhood of St. Laurence. It is continually updated by the Brotherhood's Social Policy Library staff and volunteers.

Detailed information about the Brotherhood of St. Laurence is provided via the following "themes":

BSL across decades: BSL from the 1930s. Categories are detailed for each chronological period. Categories are: Children & Families; Community Developments; Employment & Training; Fundraising & Resources; Material & Financial Support; Older People; Organisational aspects (BSL); People; People with disabilities; Presentations & Publications; Refugees & Settlement; Research and Policy and Young People.

Services: An overview of the main areas of work the Brotherhood has been involved with including Children and Families; Young people; Older people; Community development, Housing and more. Links to various campaigns, such as the abolition of slums and poverty are also included.

People: Past and present staff (including Clergy, Board members, Executive members etc.), clients and volunteers. People of note who have helped those in need whilst working at the Brotherhood.

Places: A geographical overview of Brotherhood activities.

Presentations & Publications: Books, reports (including Annual Reports and Research reports), newsletters, films, and the Sambell Oration.

Organisation: The Brotherhood's organisational structure over time, leaders, organisational governance history tracking the growth in maturity and complexity of the Brotherhood of St. Laurence.

Working with results

To move between pages of brief record results, click on the Next, Previous, First or Last links to move between pages, or click on a page number.

In the full record window, you can browse through your results, go back to the results in the brief view, move forward and back in your list of results, print the item record or save the item record.

These options are available in the “Browse results” box on the right-hand side. See Figure 20.

When you are satisfied with your search, you have the option of keeping your results temporarily or permanently.

Use your Cart for temporary saving. Use a List for long-term saving.

Cart

To keep search results temporarily, add them to your cart. They will be available as long as you keep the browser session active. Once you close your browser window, the results in the cart will disappear. See List below for an alternative, long-term option.

To add items to your Cart, select item individually or click on “Select all” in the brief results window then click on “Add to cart” at the bottom of the record.

At the full record view window, click on “Add to your cart” (see Figure 21).

To add items to your cart in bulk, click on the “With selected titles: Add to Cart”, then Save, at the top of the page. See Figure xx.

You will get a “Item added to cart” message when you action this and the cart will indicate the number of items saved.

Figure 21

List

To keep search results permanently, add them to a List.

You can create a List at any time, including during your search. To create a List during a search, select the records you want to keep in that List, click on “With selected titles: Add to [New List]”, name your List, select “Private”, click on Save. See Figure 22.

You can create multiple Lists and keep adding records whenever you run a search.

To add items to your List in bulk, click on the “With selected titles: Add to List”, then Save, at the top of the page.

You will get a “Item added to List” message when you action this.

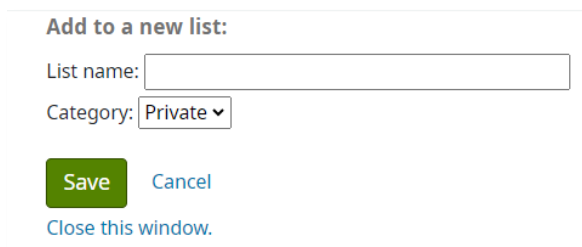

A dialog box titled "Add to a new list:". It contains a text input field for "List name:", a dropdown menu for "Category:" set to "Private", a green "Save" button, a blue "Cancel" button, and a blue link "Close this window." at the bottom.
